August 10, 2025 ✚ NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Jesus says, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." It is God's promise from the beginning — to Abraham, to the early church, and to the "little flock" of which we are a part in today's assembly. Faith, God's baptismal gift, trusts the promises of God. Have no fear.

✚ GATHERING ✚

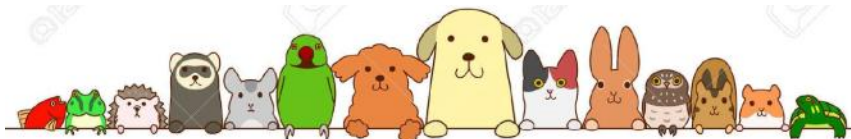

Prelude

(The prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for worship.)

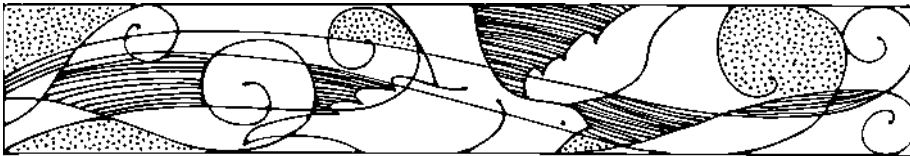

Welcome

Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church in Albion! We offer a warm welcome to all who are worshipping in person or by way of Vyve Cable Channel 21 and Facebook Live. We hope that you encounter a word of God's grace and love in this worship service.

Holy Communion will be celebrated today. At the table of our Lord Jesus Christ, God nourishes faith, forgives sin, and calls us to be witnesses to the Gospel. All who are baptized and believe in the real presence of Christ are welcome to share in the Lord's meal. Holy Communion will be distributed in person or by pre-packaged elements. If you are uncomfortable coming forward, please pick up the communion elements as you enter worship. We will partake of the sacrament as directed by the pastor within the worship service. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with an usher. Gluten Free wafers are available on request.

Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

Confession & Forgiveness

In the name of the Father, and of the ✙ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just,
will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Today the Lord calls us to walk by faith, to trust his sure promises.

(Let us take a moment of silence for reflection and confession.)

Most merciful God,
we confess our weakness and our sinfulness,
our inability to seek your will or follow in your ways.
Faith is feeble and doubt is strong.
By ourselves we are unable to lay hold of your promises.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
Forgive us and strengthen us.
Set our feet upon the way that you would have us go,
for your name's sake.

Abram believed the Lord,
and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.
All God's promises find their answer in Jesus Christ, who was given to die for us that our sins might be forgiven.
To those who believe in Jesus Christ,
God gives the power to become children of God and bestows on them the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Opening Litany

You, O Lord, have called us to be your disciples.

Prepare us to act as your ambassadors.

You, O Lord, have called us to be a blessing to others.

Prepare us to serve one another in love.

You, O Lord, have called us to witness.

Prepare us to share our faith with courage and conviction.

You, O Lord, have called us to watch for your return.

Prepare us for your Second Coming,

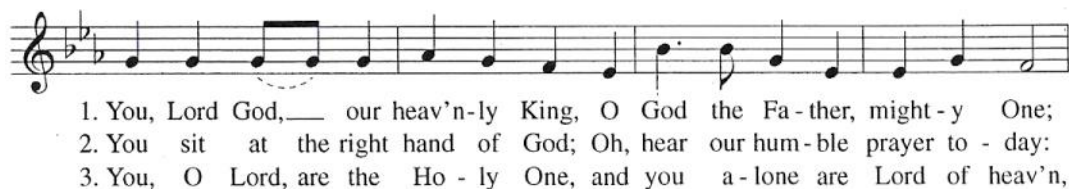

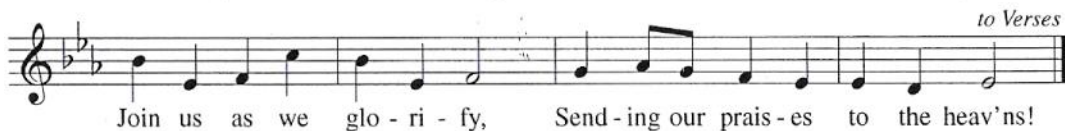

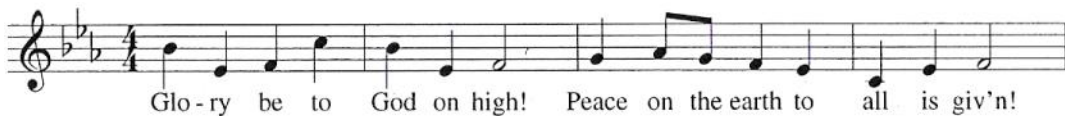

when you will take us to the place prepared for us. Amen.

Apostolic Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

Almighty God,

you sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your church.

Open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may be ready to receive you wherever you appear,

through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

MINISTRY

Jr. High Milestone

As you grow and mature, you have already noticed changes taking place in your physical appearance. When you look in a mirror there may be some things you like and some things you don't like. It's important to keep in mind that the face you see in that mirror is a reflection of the real you, but it's also a reflection of the God who created you.

Genesis 1:27 reminds us that *God created humankind in his image, in the image of God He created them;
male and female He created them.*

St. Paul also reminds us in 2nd Corinthians 3:18 that *all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord
as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another;
for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.*

Today we present you with a mirror for your locker to remind you that the person you see in that mirror is one of God's lovely and beloved children. Every day you look in that mirror, you are being transformed into God's image. No one is perfect, but God is always at work in you bringing out the best of what He created.

Distribute mirror to Jr. High Youth

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

Loving Creator,

bless these mirrors and those who look into them.

As these young people see themselves, help them to see a reflection of your love in their own faces.

Help them to love you with all their heart and to love themselves in the same way.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

✝ WORD ✝

First Reading

Genesis 15:1-6

God promises childless and aging Abram that a child of his own will be his heir and that his descendants will number as many as the stars. Abram trusts God's promise, and through this faith he is considered righteous.

A reading from Genesis.

¹After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." ²But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." ⁴But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." ⁵He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." ⁶And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.
The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 33:12-22

Let us read Psalm 33 responsively.

¹²Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD!

Happy the people chosen to be God's heritage!

¹³The LORD looks down from heaven, and sees all humankind.

¹⁴God sits firmly enthroned and watches all who dwell on the earth.

¹⁵God fashions all their hearts and observes all their deeds.

¹⁶A king is not saved by the size of the army, nor are warriors rescued by their great strength.

¹⁷The horse gives vain hope for victory;
despite its great strength it cannot save.

¹⁸Truly, your eye is upon those who fear you, O LORD, upon those who wait for your steadfast love,

¹⁹to deliver their lives from death, and to keep them alive in time of famine.

²⁰Our innermost being waits for you, O LORD, our helper and our shield.

²¹Surely, our heart rejoices in you, for in your holy name we put our trust.

²²Let your lovingkindness, O LORD, be upon us, even as we place our hope in you.

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Abraham and Sarah exemplify the vision of faith that people of God enact in every age. Their hope and trust in God's promise allowed them to face an unknown future and to receive the promise of God.

A reading from Hebrews.

¹Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ²Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. ³By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old — and Sarah herself was barren — because he considered him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.”

¹³All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, ¹⁴for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Luke 12:32-40

Jesus encourages disciples to invest their hearts and live fully into God's reign. Instead of facing life with fear, those who know God's generosity are always ready to receive from God and to give to others.

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the 12th Chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] ³²“Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵“Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; ³⁶be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.

³⁷Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. ³⁸If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

³⁹“But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.
⁴⁰You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

Living together in trust and hope, let us confess our faith...

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let us sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;
where there is discord, union;

where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy;
grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

and it is in dying
that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Prayers for our Animals

Let us pray for all your creatures-great and small.
For all dogs and cats . . . in your wisdom Lord,
We thank you for making all dogs and cats.

For all the birds of the air . . . in your wisdom Lord,
we thank you for making all birds.

For all guinea pigs, rabbits , and skunks. . . in your wisdom Lord, we thank you for making all guinea pigs, rabbits, and skunks.

For all gerbils, hamsters, and mice . . . in your wisdom Lord, we thank you for making all gerbils, hamsters, and mice.

For all snakes, turtles, lizards, and other reptiles. . .
in your wisdom Lord,
we thank you for making all reptiles.

For all the fish of the sea and aquariums . . . in your wisdom Lord, we thank you for making all fish.

For all the living creatures upon your earth . . . in your wisdom Lord, we thank you for making all animals.

We pray for all the animals in the name of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

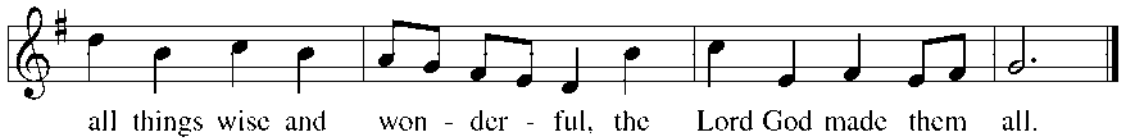

Blessing Prayer

Wonderful Creator,
you fashioned a world of amazing animals of all varieties.
From every kind of danger, from Noah's time until now,
you saved your creatures and cared for them with gentleness.
Continue to look with favor upon all your creatures,
and especially these animals for whom we love and care.
Help us to be kind to all your creatures, great and small.
Bless these loved ones, in the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of Intercession

P In solidarity with all creation, we join our voice to the voice of the whole church and pray for the needs of the world.

A brief silence.

A Keep the heart of your church set firmly in you so that, with lamps lit and attentive to Christ's call at any time or place, your people are ready to respond with faithful action for the sake of the world.

God of grace, hear our prayer.

P Worlds were prepared by your word.
Speak healing and protection upon the earth,
especially where life and habitats are threatened.
Guide the work of astronomers
and all who teach us about the stars and galaxies.
God of grace, hear our prayer.

A You know the actions and deeds of the nations.
Turn humanity away from instruments of war and violence.
Fashion the hearts of world leaders to work for peace.
God of grace, hear our prayer.

P Let your lovingkindness be on those in need, especially...
Assure all who are afraid or experiencing great uncertainty that your promises are sure.
God of grace, hear our prayer.

A Calm the fears of migrants and refugees who set out,
not knowing where they go.
Provide shelter, sustenance, protection from harm, and welcome.
Bless the work of Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service and other means of support and advocacy.
God of grace, hear our prayer.

P Here other intercessions may be offered either aloud or in silence...
God of grace, hear our prayer.

A We celebrate the ancestors in the faith who built their lives on your promises and died having seen them only from a distance.
Sustain us in our hope of things not seen.
God of grace, hear our prayer.

P Trusting in your lovingkindness, we place our prayer and hope in you, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Peace

The Peace of Christ be with you always. And also with you.

✠ MEAL ✠

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Proper Preface

God of time and eternity, we give you thanks and praise,

that you weave the fabric of your purpose

through the warp of our faith and the weft of our faithlessness.

You meet us as you met Isaac and Jacob in the tents of our transience and prepare us as you prepared Abraham for the city of your joy.

We make ourselves strangers and foreigners to you,

but you greet us in your Son;

in his death and resurrection you bring us home to be the people of your possession.

And so we gladly thank you, with saints and angels,
and all the company of heaven,
singing the hymn of your unending praise.

Eucharistic Prayer & Words of Institution

Loving God, you call us your treasure, and you tell us that where your treasure is,
there your heart is also.

In Jesus you lodge your heart among us, and in this sharing of your holy meal
you place that heart at the heart of our lives.

Now send down your Holy Spirit, that we may become holy as you are holy,
and that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us
the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ;

who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying,

*Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.*

After supper Jesus took the cup.

Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying,
*Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.*

Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Revealing God, as we perceive your Son, in the power of your Spirit, to be present in this bread and this wine,

open our eyes to see your presence in the places and people wherein you make known your glory, so that when you come again on the last day,
we shall recognize you by the company you keep,
and you shall recognize us by the company we keep.

Just as you have shown us that your heart is always with us, wherever our hearts stray, so now draw our hearts always to be where your heart is.

As you have made us your treasure on earth, transform us and your whole creation into your treasure in heaven, until the day when all hearts are drawn to you in the harmony of your praise, ever one God, our savior and our friend. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Let us pray together as Jesus taught us...

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Announcements

Backpack Blessing

Lord, as you bring us to the start of a new school year
we bring these backpacks and their owners to your altar.

Just as you beckoned the children to come into your divine and loving presence,
We ask you to hold these children close in your arms and keep them in your loving protection throughout the coming school year.

Good teacher, through vivid stories and straightforward lessons, you revealed God's kingdom to people eager to hear the Good News.
Open the eyes, ears and minds of these children to grow in knowledge and wisdom this school year.
Help them to be attentive and active learners.

God of wisdom, mighty King, we pray that these children may grow in knowledge through the lessons they learn in each classroom.
Fill their minds with knowledge. Broaden their imaginations.
Let them witness your creative genius in all they see and do this year.

Through your Son, Jesus,
we are made inheritors of your kingly blessings.
Be with these children in their classes each day,
and be with them in the hallways, cafeteria and playground,
so that they may be a blessing wherever they go.

Jesus, our Prince of Peace, showed us through word and deed the kingly way to serve one another.
We pray that the faith of these children increases each day so that they may grow closer to you as they share your love and care with others.

May these Crosses remind them that they are sons and daughters of our Heavenly King, and that you have something very special in mind for their lives.

Distribute backpack tags to each child.

We ask that you bless these backpacks and those who carry them so that these young people are ever mindful of your loving presence.

Blessing of Educators

(All educators are invited to stand.)

Teachers, paraeducators, administrators, and support staff, both your work and your rest are in God.

Will you endeavor to pattern your life on the Lord Jesus Christ, in gratitude to God and in service to others,
at morning and evening, at work and at play, all the days of your life?

Response: I will, and I ask God to help me.

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

God of wisdom, your Son came among us as a teacher.

Send your blessing on all who are engaged in the work of education – we pray for all teachers, paraeducators, administrators, and school support staff:

give them clearness of vision and freshness of thought, and enable them to train the hearts and minds of their students so that they may grow in wisdom and be prepared to face the challenges of life;

and strengthen all of us in our Christian vocation of witness to the world and of service to others;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benediction

The God of peace, Father, ✝ Son, and Holy Spirit, continue to bless you, comfort you,
and guide you in your journey of faith. Amen.
