June 14, 2026 † Third Sunday after Pentecost

Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.

† GATHERING †

Prelude

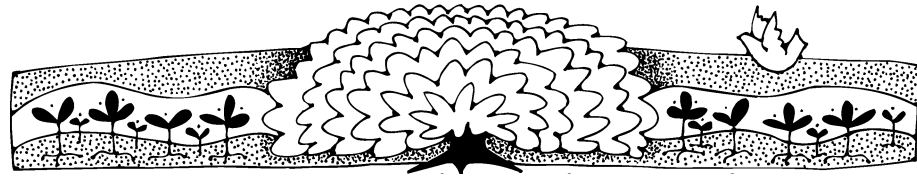

(The prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for worship.)

Welcome

Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church in Albion! We offer a warm welcome to all who are worshipping in person or by way of Facebook Live. We hope that you encounter a word of God's grace and love in this worship service.

Holy Communion will be celebrated today. At the table of our Lord Jesus Christ, God nourishes faith, forgives sin, and calls us to be witnesses to the Gospel. All who are baptized and believe in the real presence of Christ are welcome to share in the Lord's meal. Holy Communion will be distributed in person or by pre-packaged elements. If you are uncomfortable coming forward, please pick up the communion elements as you enter worship. We will partake of the sacrament as directed by the pastor within the worship service. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with an usher. Gluten Free wafers are available on request.

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

Confession and Forgiveness

In the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

“As I live,” says the Lord,
“I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways, and live.”

If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Today the Lord sends us to bear witness to him,
as laborers in the harvest.

(Silence for meditation and self-examination.)

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you — in our thinking, in our speaking, and in our doing.
Having lost sight of our hope, we have lost sight of our mission.
We have failed to do what you command.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
Forgive us our sins and call us by your Holy Spirit to the new life you ordained for us, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through Jesus Christ,
who died for the ungodly.
Through the Holy Spirit given to us,
God’s love has been poured into your hearts.
For the sake of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven.
Amen.

Dorothy’s Hymn

Thank You Dorothy

(Tune: #543)

Thank you Dor’ - thy for the bles-sing you’ve been to us.
Thank you Dor’ - thy for your work with our High School youth.
Thank you Dor’ - thy for the mem’-ries we won’t for - get -

Plan - ning, teach-ing, laugh - ing, learn-ing, all with - out fuss.
You’ve en - dured the highs and lows of shar - ing God’s truth.
There were count-less soups and break-fasts, and Gath - er - ings.

You have helped kids learn of God’s love and to know He’ll nev-er leave them.
Wednes-day nights, ski trips and bake sales, can-dle - light and East - er wor - ship,
You made all these things so much fun, ev - en when mood swings were so high.

May God bless you now and al - ways, you are a gem!

Benediction

God all mighty, God most merciful, bless us, keep us, and grant us peace.
In the name of the Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

St. Paul writes: “For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us.” (Rom. 12:4-6)

Dorothy, we thank God for you and for the gift that you are to us. Please accept these tokens of our appreciation for all that you have done in the name of Jesus.

*Gifts are presented to Dorothy with our thanks.
Applause is appropriate at this time.*

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

Almighty God,
your Holy Spirit equips the church with a rich variety of gifts. As members of your body, we all have our part to play in the whole life of your church. We give thanks for the ways these gifts have been shown forth among us through your servant Dorothy. We are graced by all the effort, time, and support she has given in humble service to your family of faith, particularly to the youth of this congregation. We are touched by her commitment and faith, and we pray that you would continue to bless her, O God, as she has been a blessing to us. Pour out your spirit upon Dorothy, that she may continue to dream dreams and testify to the Light of his salvation, Jesus Christ. May we find inspiration in his years of faithfulness. May we follow his example by serving you with steadfastness and singleness of heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Opening Litany

God sent his Son into the world.
Now that Son is sending us.
Christ has opened our mouths so we may speak.
Send us out, O Lord, with words from the Spirit on our lips.
Christ fills our hearts with compassion.
Send us out, O Lord,
with hearts that sense the plight of the poor and alone.
Christ gives us power from on high.
Send us out, O Lord,
with the strength to endure the difficulties that lie ahead.
Christ surrounds us with his comforting embrace.
Send us out, O Lord, with arms that are ready to welcome the wayward back into the fold.

Christ sets our sights on the people in need of his care.

Send us out, O Lord,
with eyes that can see opportunities for service.

Christ puts us on paths that lead to the future.

Send us out, O Lord, with feet that run with haste to places near and far where your Word has not been heard.

Christ keeps our thoughts in tune with his.

Send us out, O Lord,
with minds committed to your kingdom's goals.

Christ stands beside us all along the way.

Send us out, O Lord, with a desire to draw closer and closer to you until you come again.

Apostolic Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Post-Communion Prayer

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

Compassionate God,

through the gifts of bread and wine

our hearts are filled with the abundance of your love.

Strengthen us that we, through this holy meal,

may share your love freely, as you have shared with us.

We ask this in the name of Jesus,

through the Spirit nourishing us now and forever. Amen.

Announcements

Recognition of Dorothy Grosch's Ministry

Dear friends: United with all the baptized in the one body of Christ, anointed with the gift of the Holy Spirit,

we are joined in God's mission for the life of the world.

We are called to that mission in our daily lives and in the ministries we share as the church of God.

It is always our privilege to recognize and support those who are engaged in the work of this congregation.

Today it is our privilege to give thanks to God for Dorothy Grosch who is completing her time of service in the ministry of Zion's High School Youth Coordinator.

A brief description of Dorothy's ministry is shared.

St. Paul writes, "Now there are a variety of gifts, but the same Spirit;

and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord;

and there are varieties of activities,

but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone."

(I Cor. 12:4-6)

We thank you, Lord,

for the many and various gifts gathered in this congregation.

Especially today, we thank you for the gift that Dorothy is to us and for her ministry among us.

Refrain

I love to tell the sto - ry; 'twill be my theme in glo - ry to tell the old, old sto - ry of Je - sus and his love.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

God of compassion,
you have opened the way for us and brought us to yourself.
Pour your love into our hearts, that, overflowing with joy, we may freely share the blessings of your realm and faithfully proclaim the good news of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

✠ WORD ✠

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-8a

At Sinai God assured Israel, "You shall be my treasured possession," and commissioned them to serve as mediating priests for the nations. The people commit themselves completely to God's will.

A reading from Exodus.

²[The Israelites] had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. ³Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: ⁴You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. ⁵Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, ⁶but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites."

⁷So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. ^{8a}The people all answered as one: "Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do." The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 100

Let us read Psalm 100 responsively.

¹Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all you lands!
²Serve the LORD with gladness;
come into God's presence with a song.

³Know that the LORD is God, our maker to whom we belong; we are God's people and the sheep of God's pasture.

⁴Enter the gates of the LORD with thanksgiving and the courts with praise; give thanks and bless God's holy name.

⁵Good indeed is the LORD, whose steadfast love is everlasting, whose faithfulness endures from age to age.

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-8

We are no longer God's enemies but have peace with God because we were brought into a right relationship with God through Christ's death.

A reading from Romans.

¹Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. ³And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person — though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

⁸But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 9:35 — 10:23

The mission of Jesus' followers is to continue the mission of Jesus himself. Here, he instructs his first disciples as to how they might proclaim the gospel through their words and deeds.

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 9th Chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

³⁵Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; ³⁸therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

^{10:1}Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. ²These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

⁵These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, ⁶but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ ⁸Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. ⁹Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, ¹⁰no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food. ¹¹Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave.

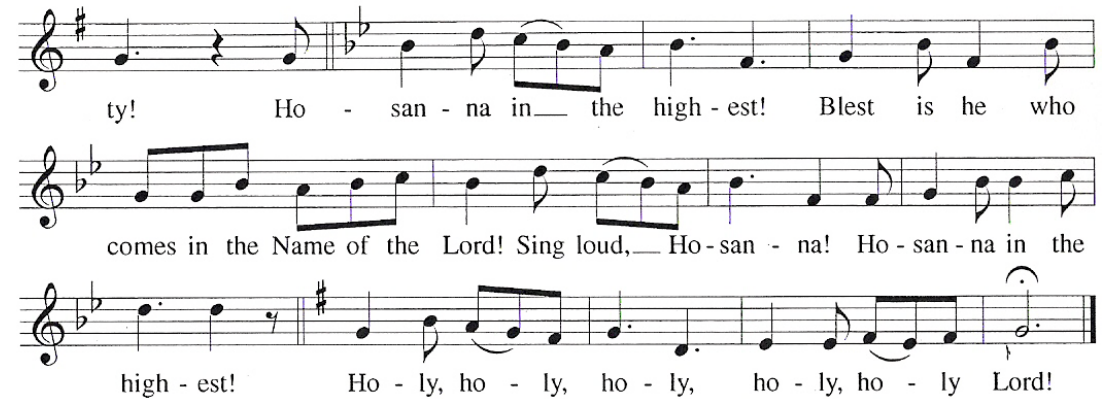

¹²As you enter the house, greet it. ¹³If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. ¹⁵Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town. ¹⁶“See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. ¹⁷Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; ¹⁸and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. ¹⁹When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; ²⁰for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. ²¹Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; ²²and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. ²³When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.”
 The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Eucharistic Prayer & Words of Institution

Abiding God, in three visitors you appeared in the heat of the day, and before him you broke bread and made your glorious purpose known.
 Come among your people today, that in the sharing of food
 we may be made bearers of your covenant grace.
 Send your Holy Spirit on the bread we break and the cup we share, that they may be for us the body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord;
 who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying “Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup.
 Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples saying, *“Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
 Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”*

Great is the mystery of faith.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God,
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Proper Preface

Trinity of grace and love, we thank and praise you, for you purposed before the foundation of the world to open your dance of delight to include even us, and you shaped your very life
to incorporate us in your dance forever.
While we were yet sinners,
Christ not only came among us but died at our hands.
In the glory of his resurrection he called ones like us to be his apostles and spread the good news of his mercy to all the world.
And so with apostles and saints and angels and every creature in whose heart your song is sung, we join our voices in your eternal praise.

Apostles' Creed

Living together in trust and hope, let us confess our faith...
I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again;
 he ascended into heaven,
 he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

- P Gathered together by the Holy Spirit, let us pray for the church and the needs of the world.
A brief silence.
- A God of freedom,
 you ransomed Israel from slavery to be a holy people.
 As we observe Juneteenth this coming week, free us also to be a people who proclaim your liberating love.
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- P God of creation, you call all the earth to make a joyful noise to you.
 Let us join the chorus of the natural world in proclaiming your glory.
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- A God of the nations, you sent Jesus as peace for all of humankind.
 Bring an end to war and conflict,
 bring hope to places devastated by destruction,
 and sustain those who advocate for peace.
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- P God of grace,
 you pour hope and love into our hearts in times of shame and doubt.
 Protect those experiencing housing insecurity.
 Uplift anyone struggling with hopelessness, illness, or other worries, especially...
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- A God of all, you call your children to serve in a plentiful harvest.
 Give us the wisdom to know how best to serve our local community and our neighbors.

 God of grace, hear our prayer.

- P Here other intercessions may be offered either aloud or in silence.
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- A God of faith, we give thanks for the saints who earnestly seek you.
 Guide us as we seek to follow those who have led your church.
 God of grace, hear our prayer.
- P Trusting you receive all our prayers, we commend our spoken and unspoken prayers to you, O God, through Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Peace

The Peace of Christ be with you always.
And also with you.
