September 14, 2025 + Holy Cross Day

This festival, which originated in the fourth century, celebrates the triumph of the cross. Paul reminds us that Christ crucified is the power and wisdom of God. As Moses put a serpent on a pole to be a source of healing for the Israelites, we lift high the cross as the sign of our health and salvation. Each time we make the sign of the cross we remember our baptism into the death and resurrection of Christ.

Prelude

(The prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for worship.)

Welcome

Welcome to Zion Lutheran Church in Albion! We offer a warm welcome to all who are worshipping in person or by way of Vyve Cable Channel 21 and Facebook Live. We hope that you encounter a word of God's grace and love in this worship service.

Holy Communion will be celebrated today. At the table of our Lord Jesus Christ, God nourishes faith, forgives sin, and calls us to be witnesses to the Gospel. All who are baptized and believe in the real presence of Christ are welcome to share in the Lord's meal. Holy Communion will be distributed in person or by pre-packaged elements. If you are uncomfortable coming forward, please pick up the communion elements as you enter worship. We will partake of the sacrament as directed by the pastor within the worship service. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with an usher. Gluten Free wafers are available on request.

Holy Cross Day

Confession & Forgiveness

In the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The word of the Cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Let us take up our cross as we confess our sins to almighty God.

(Silence for meditation and self-examination.)

Lord Jesus Christ,
we confess that we have been impatient believers.

We have not finished what we began.

We have complained and sinned against you in our thoughts, words, and deeds.

We have been foolish in not seeking your wisdom alone.

Forgive us, Lord for what we have done and left undone.

Refresh our hearts and lift our burdens.

In your holy name we pray. Amen.

Christ has gone before us, bearing His Cross.

He died for each of us on the Cross, that we may also bear our own cross,

as we desire to die on the Cross with Him.

For if we die with Him, we will also live with Him.

In the name of the crucified and risen Lord, your sins are forgiven.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray... (A brief silence is kept.)

Almighty God,
your Son Jesus Christ was lifted high upon the cross

To those who look upon the cross,

Let us pray. (A brief silence is kept.)

Almighty and loving God,
we ask you to bless your Holy Word,
and particularly these Holy Bibles,
as we present them to your children.

May the wonder and mystery of your Word be revealed to each of them as they use their Bible to study and learn about your amazing love and grace.

May your Holy Word be a continual blessing to them throughout their lives. Amen.

Presentation Litany

Receive the Word of God.

Learn its stories and study its words.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish
but have eternal life.

We give you thanks for his coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
*Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.*

Again, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

*This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.*

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering, therefore, his salutary command,
his life-giving passion and death,
his glorious resurrection and ascension,
and the promise of his coming again,
we give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able;
we ask you mercifully to accept our praise and thanksgiving and with your Word and Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants, and these your own gifts of bread and wine, so that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace, and, receiving the forgiveness of sin,
may be formed to live as your holy people and be given our inheritance with all your saints.

To you, O God, Father, ☩ Son, and Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory in your holy church, now and forever. Amen.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God,
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Proper Preface

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy

ELW Setting 8

Eucharistic Prayer & Words of Institution

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.
You are most holy, and great is the majesty of your glory.

Its stories belong to us all,
and these words speak to us all.

They tell us who we are.
They tell us that we belong to one another,
for we are the people of God.

We rejoice in this step in your journey with God.
We pray God will guide you, your family, and all of us as you use this Holy Bible at home, in worship, and in your Sunday School, First Communion, and Confirmation classes.

CP: On behalf of Zion Lutheran Church, it is my honor to present you with God's Holy Word.
May it be a source of comfort, strength, and guidance throughout your lives.

Let us pray. (A brief silence is kept.)
Almighty God,
grant us faith to know your gracious purpose in all things, give us joy in doing your will,
and lead us to the building up of your kingdom.
May your Word always be a source of inspiration, guidance, and strength to those who read it and hear it.
We ask all this through your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

May we learn together and grow in our love for God's Word.
The Word of God is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path. Thanks be to God.

WORD

First Reading

When the people spoke against God and Moses, the Lord sent poisonous snakes against them. Moses interceded for the people, and the Lord ordered him to erect a serpent of bronze on a pole. All who looked at it after having been bitten by a serpent would live.

Numbers 21:4b-9

A reading from Numbers.

<sup>4b</sup>But the people became impatient on the way. <sup>5</sup>The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." <sup>6</sup>Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. <sup>7</sup>The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. <sup>8</sup>And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." <sup>9</sup>So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 98:1-4

Let us read Psalm 98 responsively.

<sup>1</sup>Sing a new song to the LORD, who has done marvelous things, whose right hand and holy arm have won the victory.

<sup>2</sup>O LORD, you have made known your victory, you have revealed your righteousness in the sight of the nations.

<sup>3</sup>You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.

Second Reading

At the heart of the Christian message is the word of the cross. This proclamation seems foolish to many because it reveals true divine power in the absolute weakness of Christ's crucifixion. True wisdom understands how ours is a God who suffers for and with humankind in the cross.

A reading from First Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 1:18-24

At the heart of the Christian message is the word of the cross. This proclamation seems foolish to many because it reveals true divine power in the absolute weakness of Christ's crucifixion. True wisdom understands how ours is a God who suffers for and with humankind in the cross.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

A Sustaining God, guide your church on the way.

Give us patience in our journey, and protect us from division and doubt.

May we look to the cross and live.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

P Creator God, renew the earth.

Heal our planet from the venom of greed and exploitation, and direct us to respect all life as a gift from you.

May we look to the cross and live.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

A God of wisdom, grant discernment to those in authority.

Thwart the plans of the proud, bring low the mighty, and uphold those who work for peace.

May they seek the way of the cross and live.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

P God of grace, alleviate suffering.

Comfort the sick and the grieving, especially...

Come to the aid of those who are hungry or needing shelter.

May they find hope in the cross and live.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

A Good Shepherd, guide your flock.

Protect us from the world's lies and lead us in the way of truth.

Strengthen us in our faith and inspire us to serve others.

May we follow you to the cross and live.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

P Here other intercessions may be offered either aloud or in silence.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

A Merciful God,

you receive into your loving embrace those who have died.

Giving thanks for them, may we find comfort in the cross and live in the hope of resurrection.

God of grace, receive our prayer.

P We entrust these prayers to you, O God, in the name of Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

<sup>20</sup>Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? <sup>21</sup>For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup>For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, <sup>23</sup>but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, <sup>24</sup>but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

John 3:13-17

After explaining to Nicodemus that one must be born of water and Spirit, Jesus speaks of being lifted up on the cross, with reference to the bronze serpent lifted up by Moses in the desert. Here the Son of God is revealed as the source of healing.

The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 3rd chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

<sup>13</sup>No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. <sup>14</sup>And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup>Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

Living together in trust and hope, let us confess our faith...

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
